

Saturday 8 June 2019	Arena 1	Arena 2	Arena 3	Arena 4
10:30am	Janet Few Get'em young: ideas for involving young people in family history and heritage	Valmay Young and Beverly Hallam Researching Ancestors in British India	Michael Tobias Researching your Jewish ancestors	Jill Ball Lost Cousins Down Under
11:30am	Lisa Louise Cooke The Power of Video Paired with Genealogy	Valerie Elkins How to Organise and Keep Track of Everything	Michelle Leonard How to Make the Most of Your Autosomal DNA Test	Lianne Kruger Research and Share with Social media
12:30pm	The People's WDYTYA Experience	David Ryan If The Walls Could Talk: Oral History for Genealogy	Jill Ball, Janet Few and Kirsty Gray Surname Studies – the why, the how and much more!	Daniel Smith – Ramos Carrying out Research in Spain
1:30pm	Judy G. Russell Mr Blackstone's Common Law	Gill Blanchard Tracing the History of Your Home or Where Your Ancestors Lived	Jonny Perl Chromosome mapping for absolute beginners	Yvette Hoitink Dutch genealogy 101: Finding your Ancestors from the Netherlands
2:30pm	Blaine T. Bettinger The Future of Genealogy	Sylvia Valentine Finding your way around Workhouse Records	Audrey Collins Birth, marriage and death records in The National Archives	Ruth Blair Canadian Family History Research: From Coast to Coast to Coast
3:30pm	Nathan Dylan Goodwin Finding Henry: The search for the father of an illegitimate wartime child	Alison Spring The wonderful world of Scottish birth, death and marriage certificates	Doreen Hopwood Where did they come from and where did they go? Migration sources for family historians	Liv Birgit Christensen A Tour of Norwegian Genealogy